

Forest Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Southwestern Regional Office

Forest Service News Release

Contact Punky Moore
SM.FS.SWpressoffice@usda.gov
www.fs.usda.gov/r3

USDA Forest Service is hiring for wildland fire positions

ALBUQUERQUE, NM, Aug. 6, 2021—If you have been thinking of applying for a ~~wildland fire management~~Fire and Aviation Management position for the USDA Forest Service, your new career starts here. The Southwestern Region is seeking individuals interested in making a difference and putting their skills to work in a variety of seasonal and permanent full-time wildland fire positions.

Approximately 50 positions will be filled across the Southwestern Region. Positions include engine operators, dispatchers, hotshot squad leaders, and prevention technicians, to name a few. Applications will be accepted from any U.S. citizen at least 18 years of age.

~~A list of positions~~Information about employment is ~~located online at~~Southwestern Region Fire & Aviation Career Opportunities. ~~online~~. Apply at USAjobs.gov for vacant positions listed on the ~~Fire Hire~~Current Outreach webpage. After setting up an online profile, you can apply to a variety of positions and locations across the Southwestern Region. Review the job announcement carefully for deadlines and required information to include in your application. Questions can be sent directly to the fire management organizations at each national forest.

The Forest Service mission is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the Nation's forests and grasslands to meet the needs of present and future generations.

###

Field Code Changed

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.