AmeriCorps Youth Outdoors Crew Member

AmeriCorps Youth Outdoors Members (ages 18-25) perform natural resource restoration projects with a crew of their adult peers and engage Twin Cities youth in after-school service projects and environmental education. In spring and fall, corp members lead crews of Twin Cities’ youth participants (ages 15-18) in environmental education and community service projects after school and on Saturdays. In summer, crews complete natural resource restoration projects. Corp members inspire youth, conduct community outreach and restore habitat in partnership with resource management agencies, working alongside conservation professionals.
