RAPTOR INTERNS NEEDED!

INTERN WITH THE GOLDEN GATE RAPTOR OBSERVATORY

The Golden Gate Raptor Observatory (GGRO) is made up of more than 250 volunteers and four paid staff studying the autumn flight of thousands of birds of prey through the Marin Headlands.

Raptor Migration Internships
June 2020—January 2021

Gain valuable work experience in wildlife fieldwork, research methods, data collection, education, and long-term migration studies!

• Identify and count raptors on the wing
• Trap and band migrating raptors
• Work with and train volunteers
• Facilitate outreach programs for groups of diverse ages and backgrounds

Includes a taxable stipend of $225/week with dorm-style housing (single room, shared bath, and kitchen) within walking distance of GGRO headquarters OR $375/week without housing

The Golden Gate Raptor Observatory is a program of the Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy in cooperation with the National Park Service.