New position - Instructor, Geospatial Analysis & Sustainability

The Center for Environmental Studies at Virginia Commonwealth University seeks applicants for a full-time 12-month, Instructor (non-tenure eligible) position. The successful candidate will contribute to the academic programs in Environmental Studies and support teaching and advising the undergraduate Certificate in Sustainable Innovation.

Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) is a premier urban, public research university with a diverse study body located in historic Richmond, Virginia. VCU enrolls more than 31,000 students on two campuses. The Center for Environmental Studies is a Chartered Research Center and focal point for environmental and geospatial research and instruction at VCU. The Center for Environmental Studies consists of 26 fulltime, affiliate, and adjunct faculty and staff, maintains a multidisciplinary undergraduate Certificate in Sustainable Innovation, a Bachelor of Science degree, and both non-thesis and thesis track Master’s degree programs.

For the full description of the position see the attached advertisement or this link - https://www.vcujobs.com/postings/80160