MCC Field Team Opportunities

In 2020 MCC is continuing to grow and evolve, and we're looking for hard working and dedicated people to be a part of that!

There are new training, networking opportunities, and project sites to explore throughout the state. Give back to local communities while having the adventure of a lifetime!

2020 Field Team projects include:

- The Allagash Wilderness Waterway
MCC Environmental Stewards

Environmental Stewards (ES) become an integral part of a conservation organization during their term! ES are placed individually with a host site and are given support and guidance, as well as the freedom to make their term their own and truly make a difference in the community they serve!

2020 Host Sites Include:

- Nonpoint Source Pollution (NPS) Program with Dept. of Environmental Protection
  - Focus on refreshing and creating outreach materials and educating the public on stormwater pollution
- Maine State Parks
  - Get engaged in trail projects at places such as Bradbury Mt., Sebago Lake, Lily Bay, and Peaks-Kenny
- South Portland Land Trust/City of South Portland
  - Focus on trails in an urban setting and engaging local communities in volunteerism and outdoor recreation
- Maine Natural Areas Program
  - Make a difference by identifying and mapping invasive plants throughout the state
