We have 5 PhD positions in Applied Ecology now open at Campus Evenstad, Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway. All positions are for 3 years.

- Evolutionary history and predator inducted morphology in crucian carp
- Value chains for bioenergy (Campus Blaestad)
- Impact of climate change on endangered aquatic spiders
- Large carnivore conflicts related to research communication and how research communication affects the conflict
- Causes and consequences of an altered mammalian carnivore community structure in Scandinavia

For more information and to apply, see the short description of each project at https://www.inn.no/om-hoegskolen/ledige-stillinger